1. All-in-One Card

The ‘All-in-one card’ is adopted by Guangzhou Higher Education Mega Center (the University Town). Providing superb convenience for both students and teacher, it combines the functions of the previous Student’s card/ Teacher’s card, Dining card, Hot-water card, shopping, telephone recharge, and so on.

BTW, the YangchengTong card (for transportation in Guangzhou) is not included in All-in-One Card. But you can apply for it together with the All-in-One-Card at the All-in-One Card Service Center , or go to any underground stations of seven-eleven or Tiantian Dry Clean with money to buy one.

How to Apply for an All-in-One Card

- (1) Take your teacher’s work card and your ID card to the All-in-One Card Service Center (Experimental Building, the 3rd floor of Block C)
- (2) The All-in-One Card Center checks the information of you and submits the information to the Card-making Center. Delivery takes less then a month.
- (3) After a necessary period of waiting time, you will get the All-in-One-Card.

How to Recharge the Card and How to Report the Loss of the ## Card

(1) Recharge the Card:

- ① Go directly to the All-in-One Card Service Center.
- ② Use Alipay app(支付宝) to recharge the card: Find the All-in-One Card Recharge and click it, and add your card information, then you can recharge the card.

(2) Report the Loss of the Card:

Go to the All-in-One Card Service Center and fill in the appropriate form. After checking the information, the center will accept the loss report.

(4) Shamian Island (沙面岛):

Shamian Island is home to a number of colonial-era buildings, including a restored French Catholic church, Our Lady of Lourdes; its British Protestant complement, the Christ Church Shamian; and many former hotels, embassies, trading houses and residences. The island (actually a permanent sand bank in the Pearl River) makes for pleasant strolling and sightseeing, with its gardens and tree-lined streets, restaurants, cafes and tea houses. You can stay on Shamian Island, if you wish; there is a youth hostel for backpackers and several hotels provide a higher degree of accommodations, with the five-star White Swan Hotel being a particularly popular hotel among travelers, a number of whom are in Guangzhou to adopt (the US Consulate is next door, making legwork and paperwork easier).

Take university town route 3 to the Jiangnan new village station, and then take bus 270 and get off at the city central hospital, and walk near 570 meters.

(5) The Sacred Heart Cathedral (石室圣心大教堂):

It is located on Yide Road in Guangzhou, beside the Pearl River. Built in 1863 and completed in 1888, the Sacred Heart Cathedral is of more than 100 years. Because of all the church walls and pillars are made of granite stone, it is also known as the "Sarcophagus" or "Sarcophagus Sacred Heart of jesus Church", "Sarcophagus Catholic Church". With its magnificent arches, tall towers, window lattices with floral designs, the cathedral is the most distinctive in Guangzhou, and it attracts many people all over the world.

Take university town route 3 to the Chigang Road intersection station, and then take bus 131b and get off at Changdi station, and walk near 440 meters.

(6) Haizhu Square (海珠广场):

This is a wholesale market that also does retail business. There are a few shops that are not willing to do retail, though. When asking for prices, make sure to state whether you're buying just one or a lot as there are different costs. You can find everything here: fake plants and flowers, Chinese souvenirs, jewelry, accessories for you and your home, etc. You need some time to explore this place, and keep track of where you're going as it is easy to get lost. Northwest of Haizhu Square is a wholesale leather goods (real and fake) market. Just cross the street, head west to the next big intersection, and turn north. It is appropriate to bargain at both places.

Two ways to get here:

- ① Take the metro, get off at Haizhu Square, Exit D.
- ② Take bus 86 from the central terminal and get off at Qiao Guang Xi (侨光西).

(7) Fabric City & Second Hand Electronics City:

These two places are located in the Da Sha Tou (大沙头) area. You can buy real silk and other fabrics, and have tailor made. Take someone who speaks Chinese with you the first couple of times and as not everyone speaks English. It is appropriate to bargain for prices of fabric. The Second Hand Electronics City also sells new products. They have everything from computers and computer accessories, TVs, DVD players, etc. Take the bus 35 at the Central Terminal. Get off at Da Sha Tou.

Note: For more information about things to do in Guangzhou, please refer to That's PRD.

(8) Overseas Chinese Village (华侨新村):

It is within walking distance of Garden Hotel with similar amenities. It can be found next to the Holiday Inn Hotel. Besides, there are many places of interests in GZ, I can't mention more detail of them, but you can surf the internet to research.

5. Other Cities in Southern China

Hong Kong: Guangzhou Dong Station (广州东站) is the train station that can take you to Hong Kong. The easiest way to get to that station is by metro. To get to Hong Kong, there are two options:

- (1) Take a train to Shenzhen (深圳), walk across the boarder to Hong Kong (about 75RMB). Then take the Hong Kong KCR train to various destinations (about 40HKD).
- (2) Take the Guangzhou-Canton Through Train (approximately 190HKD). You go through customs into Hong Kong at Guangzhou Dong Station. Takes you directly to the heart of the city in Hong Hum.

Macau: Most major bus terminals in Guangzhou go to Zhuhai (Guangzhou Long Distance Bus Terminal at Guangzhou Metro Station (广州站), Tian He Ke Yun Zhan Metro Station (天河客运站). From Zhuhai, you can just walk across the boarder to Macau. Prices of stations vary.
